

Thursday June 8th		Friday June 9th
8.15 - 8.30	Presidential Welcome Joerg Schroeder SIS-E President	8.30 - 9.30	Symposium IV Guidelines and implementation challenges  What is new at “WHO global guideline”? Joe Solomkin, USA  International Guidelines for Management of Sepsis and Septic Shock John Mazuski, USA  How we can implement guidelines to daily practice? Xavier Guirao, Spain
8.30 - 10.00	Free Paper Session I (1-9)	9.30 - 10.00	New horizons II  New compliance modalities at OR New compliance (Speaker TBA), Netherlands
10.30 - 11.30	Symposium I Pillars of surgical site infection prevention  Basics in surgical site infection prevention Xavier Guirao, Spain  Hair management & skin antisepsis Jose Balibrea, Spain  Interactive session with voting: Short case problem solving in SSI prevention Xavier Guirao, Spain	10.00 - 10.30	Young Investigator Lecture  Less is more; insights in the prevention of SSI Sarah Gans, Netherlands
		11.00 - 11.30	Semmelweis Lecture  30 years of a society! Hans-Peter Simmen, Switzerland
11.30 - 12.30	Symposium II Abdominal Catastrophes  Intestinal failure Carolynne Vaizey, UK  Complex abdominal surgical wounds Marja Boermeester, Netherlands  What’s next? Definitive closure strategies Francesco Di Marzo, Italy	11.30 - 12.30	Anniversary Panel with Past Presidents  Tradition and the future Iskender Sayek, Turkey 1998 Miguel Cainzos, Spain 2004 Reinhold Függer, Austria 2006 Ulrich Schoeffel, Germany 2008 Metin Çakmakçı, Turkey 2009 Jesus Culebras, Spain 2012 Thomas Sautner, Austria 2013

13.30 - 15.00	Symposium III  Joint symposium with the World Society of Emergency Surgery (WSES)  Post-operative infections The burden of post-operative infections on surgical patients and global healthcare system  Metin Çakmakçı, Turkey The role of the surgeons in combating infections in surgical patients  Federico Coccolini, Italy Appropriate use of antibiotics in patients with intra-abdominal infections; AGORA project.  Massimo Sartelli, Italy WSES Dublin Open Abdomen Consensus Document  Federico Coccolini, Italy	13.30 - 14.00	Presidential Address How surgeons deal with complications?  Joerg Schroeder, SIS-E President
		14.00 - 15.00	Pro/Con Debates Management of wound infections  Open management:  Otmar Buyne, Netherlands  Closed management:  Marja Boermeester, Netherlands Treatment of acute appendicitis  Medical therapy:  Thomas Sautner, Austria 2013  Surgical therapy:  Christian Eckmann, Germany
15.00 - 16.00	Symposium IV  Soft tissue and bone infections Pathogenesis and therapy of periprosthetic infections.  T. Gehrke, Germany Posttraumatic osteomyelitis. New therapeutic approach  Gerrold N Jukema, Switzerland Necrotizing soft tissue infections; MRSA challenge and rational use of antibiotics  Massimo Sartelli, Italy	15.00 - 16.00	Symposium VI  Complex intra-abdominal infections The Surgical Infection Society 2017 Revised Guideline  John Mazuski, USA Antimicrobial resistance in cIAI. Why surgeons do need to worry?  Jan De Waele, Belgium Recent developments in the surgical management of cIAI  Ines Rubio, Spain
16.30 - 17.00	New horizons I Our own microbiome: the good and the evil - new demands for bacteriophage therapy  Christine Rohde, Germany	16.30 - 17.00	Meeting with the editor Surgical Infections Journal  Donald Fry, USA          Editor in Chief, Surgical Infections
17.00 - 18.00	Free Paper Session II (10-15)	17.00 - 18.00	Free Paper Session III (16-21)
19.00	SIS-E Conference Dinner	19.00 - 19.00	SIS-E Business Meeting

